

Academic Career

Munich School of Philosophy (Chair of Practical Philosophy)

Research Associate

„Politics in Search of Evidence“-Project, funded by the German Research Foundation

Munich
Since Oct. 2021

Munich School of Philosophy

Ph.D. in social and political philosophy

Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Michael Reder

Title: “Critical Subjectivities. A postcolonial perspective on the conditions of self-critique “

Munich
Since Oct. 2019

*Doctoral program “Ethics, Culture and Education for the 21. Century“**

Fellow

Munich/Eichstätt,
Oct. 2019 – Oct. 2021

Munich School of Philosophy (Chair of Practical Philosophy)

Research Assistant

Munich
Dec. 2015 – Sept. 2021

Otto-Falkenberg-School (academy for performing art)

Lecturer

Munich,
Dec. 2019

Dresden University of Fine Arts

Lecturer

Dresden
Feb.-Mar. 2019

Technical University of Munich (Chair of Business Ethics)

Research Assistant

Munich
Mar. 2018 – Mar. 2019

Technical University of Munich/Munich School of Philosophy/Hebrew University

M.Sc and B.Sc. in Management and Technology (TUM-BWL)

B.A. in Philosophy

Munich and Jerusalem
2010– 2018

Publications

2023: “Vernunft/Vernünftigkeit“, in: Frühbauer/Reder/Schmidt (eds.), Rawls-Handbuch. Leben – Werk – Wirkung, Metzler. [Reason and Reasonableness in Rawls’ oeuvre]

2022: “Transformative Gerechtigkeit als postkoloniale Ordnungsvorstellung? Ein Versuch, von abolitionistischen Praktiken zu lernen“, in: Weber/Pauls/Oppelt (eds.), Postkoloniale Staatsvorstellungen. Nomos. [Transformative Justice and post-colonial understandings of modern state]

2022: “Digitalisierung als Kritik von Subjektivität. Über Kontingenz und Politisierung von Menschsein in einer digitalen Welt“, in: Endres/Rutzmooser/Puzio (eds.), Menschsein in einer technisierten Welt. Springer. [Digitalization as critique and politization of subjectivity]

Presentations

2023: “Welches Wissen wird gehört? Über koloniale Ausschlüsse im Prozess der Wissensbildung am Beispiel von Community-Wissen“, 59. Annual conference of the German Society for social medicine and prevention, Hannover. [How processes of knowledge generation reproduce colonial exclusion of community knowledge]

2023: “Self-critique as a tool in social movements. How does it work and what does it aim for?“, Workshop ‘Ideology and social transformation’ with Prof. Sally Haslanger, Munich School of Philosophy.

2023: “The Colonial Journey of Descartes’ Thinking: A Story about the Separation of Mind and Body” together with Henriette Hufgard, conference ‘Body Knowledges: Praxis, Politics, Performances’, University of Malta.

2022: “Indigenes Wissen für eine globale Klimapolitik? Über koloniale Ausschlüsse von Wissen und Praktiken der epistemischen Kooperation“, Conference ‘Against Racism’, Catholic Academy of Munich. Revised for the academic workshop ‘What knowledge (and what science) for policy-making? Challenges of knowledge-based democracy [About colonial exclusion of indigenous knowledge in climate politics]

2022: “Vertrauen als Voraussetzung wissenschaftsbasierter Politik. Eine interdisziplinäre Perspektive” together with Julia Piel, Conference for Practical Philosophy, University of Salzburg. [Trust as requirement for science-based policy making]

2021: "Kritische Subjektivität. Rekonstruktion und postkoloniale Perspektive", Conference for Practical Philosophy, University of Salzburg. [Critical subjectivity. Reconstruction and postcolonial perspective]

2021: "Genealogie als Kritik aus postkolonialer Perspektive. Eine affirmative sabotage", Workshop Order - Practice - Subject: What is Social Philosophy? with Prof. Dr. Martin Saar, Munich School of Philosophy. [Genealogical critique and postcolonial sabotage]

Public Philosophy

Forthcoming: Essay/Blog post "Profitmaximierung durch Bettelverbot: Über neoliberale Versicherheitlichung in München", in: kontrapunkte.blog. URL: <https://kontrapunkte.hypotheses.org/>. [Neoliberal politics and securitization in Munich]

2023: Lecture Performance "Mit gehört Boden und du bist selbst dran Schuld. Eigentum, koloniales Othering und Kriminalisierung von Armut in München", art festival 'Ohne Grund und Boden', Munich. [Property and colonial othering, e.g. as criminalization of poverty in Munich]

2021: Essay "Was gibt uns Sicherheit? Zur Rolle der Polizei nicht nur in Zeiten einer Pandemie", in: Hutflötz/Hilzensauer (eds.), Wieder denken. Neue Fragen, andere Antworten, Perspektiven für die Zeit nach der Pandemie. Büchergilde. [Security and Police during the pandemic]

Funding

2019-2021: Doctoral scholarship from the network of the catholic churches of Bavaria

2016-2018: Scholarship from the Hans Rudolph Foundation

2017: International Scholarship from the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD-Promos)